FRANKFORT — The Frankfort-Schuyler Central School District will conduct its third annual Wall of Honor Induction Ceremony at 5:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 13, in the high school auditorium at 605 Palmer St., Frankfort. After the ceremony, a dinner with catering by Big Willy's will be served in the cafeteria.

The Wall of Honor recognizes and honors the outstanding contributions made by Frankfort-Schuyler graduates in the areas of education, business, medicine, athletics, science, technology, community service, government, religion and performance/visual arts. It is intended to honor the school's alumni and serve as a source of pride for the community, according to a news release.

The 2018 Induction Class was selected earlier this year. Honorees include James Branck, Class of 1960, in the areas of education and technology; Joseph P. Cristiano, Class of 1958, in the areas of business and commerce; Stephen A. McMurray, Class of 1991, in the areas of business and community service; Dr. Angelo Pedulla, Class of 1998, in the area of medicine, and James Wallace, Class of 1974, in the area of government.

The district will also conduct the first Spirit of Frankfort-Schuyler recognition program during the Wall of Honor ceremony. Frankfort-Schuyler alumni are eligible to be nominated and selected, based upon the following criteria: a demonstrated record of community service and volunteerism; support of Frankfort-Schuyler students, programs and activities; and caring and compassion for others.

The individuals nominated and selected for the first Spirit of Frankfort-Schuyler Recognition Award are Gary Caiola, Class of 1975; Charles Conigliaro, Class of 1974; Carmelina Lore-Cooper, Class of 1977; Scott Grates, Class of 1995; Lucille Hand, Class of 1962; Mike Jacopelle, beloved friend of Frankfort-Schuyler; and Brad Vivacqua, Class of 1999.

Tickets for the ceremony and dinner are $20 for adults and $8 for children younger than 12 years of age. The reservation deadline is Oct. 7. Contact the District Office at 315-895-7781 or by email at rreina@frankfort-schuyler.org for more information.
